

Women into Leadership - Aspiring Assistant Headteachers

Launch event – 26th February 2018

Programme to include

- 7 twilight sessions
- 1-2-1 coaching with Senior Management Coach and Consultant
- Post programme Away Day

Within secondary schools, just 38.2% of headteachers are female (compared to 73.8% of all classroom teachers). (Source: School Workforce in England: November 2015 statistical first release). We are working with the DfE to support aspiring female leaders.

To book contact:

Laura Lusardi - Tel. 01727 799560 ext. 251

enquiries@albantsa.co.uk

@AlbanTSA

Who for:

Female leaders who have the skills and experience to move into school leadership but are yet to take that step.

Outcomes:

- Delegates are supported in reviewing and evaluating own strengths and areas for development.
- Delegates are supported in developing a direction for their future career, from middle into senior leadership.
- Delegates develop a broader understanding of different styles and effectiveness of approaches to leadership.
- Delegates feel equipped for the next step career changes and developments.
- Delegates' views of leadership are informed by a range of contexts and experiences from outside their current context.
- Delegates consider practical approaches to developing and consolidating skills for future career development.

Timetable:

Session 1	Monday, 26th February 2018
Session 2	Wednesday, 21 st March 2018
Session 3	Wednesday, 25 th April 2018
Session 4	Tuesday, 8th May 2018
Session 5	Thursday, 7 th June 2018
Session 6	Thursday, 28th June 2018
Celebration event	Tuesday, 10th July 2018
Away day	Thursday, 8th November 2018

www.albantsa.co.uk

National Teaching School designated by

National College for Teaching & Leadership