Who for:

Female leaders who have the skills and experience to move into senior school leadership at Deputy or Headteacher level, but are yet to take that step.

Outcomes:

- Delegates are supported in reviewing and evaluating own strengths and areas for development.
- To support delegates in next step promotions within senior leadership.
- Broader understanding of different styles and effectiveness of approaches to leadership.
- Delegates feel equipped for the next step career changes and developments.
- Delegates' views of leadership are informed by a range of contexts and experiences from outside their current context.
- Delegates consider practical approaches to developing and consolidating skills for future career development.
